4BBB Rules and Conditions (BB= Better Ball)

BB1. A 4BBB match play Competition played for annually.

BB2. Players entering must be a member of a Club affiliated to SLCGA or be an associate or individual member of SLCGA. Pairings do not need to be from the same Club.

BB3. The competition is open to handicap indices plus to 30. There will be no maximum limit of 1 stroke per hole. Matches will be played off full difference of 90% of the course handicaps.

BB4. The players at the top of the draw will play their first-round match at “Home”. The player drawn at “Home” must offer at least 3 dates to her opponents as per the General Rules and Conditions – See Rules G14 and G17. In all future rounds the competition organiser will inform the players who has “Home” advantage.

BB5. A pair who are members of different clubs are not restricted as to which course they offer for each round when drawn as the ‘home’ pair.

BB6. A pair from different clubs can offer dates at either of the clubs. All dates offered in a given round must be at the same club. Courtesy must be offered to the opponents; whether it is granted to the 'non-home' player is up to the club concerned.

BB7. No substitutions will be allowed once the first round has been played.
